In Collaboration with:
Paul Rousseau, M.D. has practiced Hospice and Palliative Medicine for almost 30 years. He is board-certified in Internal Medicine and Hospice and Palliative Medicine, and is a fellow of the American College of Physicians and the American Academy of Hospice and Palliative Medicine. Dr. Rousseau has received numerous awards, including the Distinguished Service Award from the American Academy of Hospice and Palliative Medicine at their annual meeting in 2007. Dr. Rousseau has lectured and published extensively on end of life care, served on the Board of Directors of the American Academy of Hospice and Palliative Medicine and the Arizona Hospice and Palliative Care Organization, and was Associate Professor, General Internal Medicine and Geriatrics, Medical Director, Palliative and Supportive Care Program, Medical University of South Carolina, Charleston, South Carolina, as well as medical director for Beacon Hospice, also in Charleston, South Carolina.

Rita DiBiase earned her MSN from Wayne State University and holds board certification as a Nurse Practitioner, Advanced Oncology Clinical Nurse Specialist and Hospice & Palliative Care Nurse. She spent several years at Karmanos Cancer Center where she held positions as BMT staff nurse, Performance Improvement Coordinator, Clinical Nurse Specialist and Nurse Practitioner. She joined the Cancer Program at Windsor Regional Hospital in 2010 as Palliative Nurse Practitioner. Rita is an EPEC™-O Canada trainer, LEAP facilitator, ELNEC trainer and co-creator of PRESENCE curriculum (Palliative Resources Education and Support to Enrich Nursing Care with ELNEC).

Focusing on healthcare providers, she has presented Disenfranchised Grief talks and workshops locally, regionally and nationally in the U.S. and Canada. Rita authored 3 chapters about grief in ‘Case Studies in palliative and End-of-Life Care’ (ed. Campbell, M., 2012).
